GREG LEISER, CPA NAMED VICE PRESIDENT FINANCE OF EOS INTERNATIONAL

Vice President Finance offers financial leadership in the midst of national economic uncertainty

(Carlsbad, CA – March 25, 2009) EOS International appointed Gregory Leiser to fill the newly created position of Vice President of Finance. Mr. Leiser joins the senior management team, and will have the primary responsibilities of strategic planning, finance and accounting. Mr. Leiser brings over twenty years of senior management experience to EOS International, spending the last fourteen years in the industrial automation systems industry. During the past six months, Mr. Leiser assisted EOS with strategic consulting projects and planning while serving as a principal with Tatum LLC, an executive services firm.

“Greg was brought into the company to assist in a variety of strategic areas. He will now expand his focus to include strengthening our finance and accounting functions in order to support our anticipated growth with future EOS.Web enhancements and increased product offerings,” said Scot Cheatham, President and Founder of EOS International.

“While working at EOS as a consultant, I was granted an insider’s look at the company before I made the decision to join the EOS staff,” said Leiser. “Joining the organization was an easy choice, and I look forward to contributing to its long-term success.”

Mr. Leiser earned his degree in Business Administration from California State University – Bakersfield and is a Certified Public Accountant.
