EOS International Announces Twenty-One New Clients in First Quarter
2011 starts off strong for EOS International

(Carlsbad, CA – April 4, 2011) EOS International, a leader in cloud computing library automation software, is pleased to welcome twenty-one new clients in the first quarter. Leading in sales this quarter are academic libraries, representing 33% of new clients. Digital libraries account for 19%, while legal libraries account for 10% and include major law firms: Miller Nash LLP, McCarthy Tetrault LLP-HQ, and Kirkland & Ellis LLP. The remaining 38% of sales were to association, museum, medical, government, and corporate libraries.

Salvatore Provenza, Vice President of Global Sales & Marketing, stated, “We are excited by the rapid adoption of EOS.Web® Digital which was just launched in the third quarter of 2010. It is clear that our advanced product offerings are resonating well in this competitive marketplace. We predict steady growth throughout the rest of 2011.”

Below is a partial list of new EOS Clients:
