EOS INTERNATIONAL ANNOUNCES NEW INTERNATIONAL RESELLER

EOS expands distribution network with the addition of a new reseller in India

(Carlsbad, CA – February 07, 2011) EOS International, a leader in library automation and Software-as-a-Service (SaaS), announced the addition of their newest international reseller, Database Access India (DAI) in New Delhi, India. The addition of a new reseller provides EOS with an expanded presence internationally, helping to promote our multilingual EOS.Web product line.

Database Access India (DAI) provides EOS with access to the Indian market, providing product and service sales and support in India and Sri Lanka. Adding EOS products to Database Access India's current offerings allows the company to enter the integrated library software and knowledge management market with built-in brand recognition in India and Sri Lanka.

“We anticipate market growth in India and Sri Lanka as a result of our latest reseller partnership,” stated Vice President of Global Sales & Marketing Salvatore Provenza. “We are an international company with installations in 47 countries worldwide. We are committed to reaching as many libraries as possible, regardless of their location. We have already seen a significant spike in our sales in these international markets.”
