Futurist Thomas Frey to Present at EOS International's Annual Sales Kick-off Meeting

Special guest speaker to discuss the future of libraries and information technology

(Carlsbad, CA – January 11, 2011) EOS International, a leader in library automation and Software-as-a-Service (SaaS), announced that Futurist Thomas Frey will be the featured guest speaker at their Annual Sales Kick-off Meeting held on January 14, 2011. Thomas Frey will discuss “The Future of Libraries and Information Technology”.

As the Executive Director and Senior Futurist at the DaVinci Institute, Thomas Frey works closely with the Institute's Senior Fellows and Board of Visionaries to develop original research studies, which enables him to speak on unusual topics, translating trends into unique opportunities.

Because of his work inspiring inventors and other revolutionary thinkers, Thomas has been referred to as the “Father of Invention” and the “Dean of Futurists”.

Vice President of Global Sales and Marketing, Salvatore Provenza states, “With the intelligence shared by a top leader in the industry, I am as confident as ever that EOS International will continue to exceed the expectations of our clients and maintain its competitive advantage over other integrated library services providers.”
