EOS International Announces New GOLD Client Program

(Carlsbad, CA – January 03, 2011) EOS International, a leading provider of library automation solutions, is pleased to announce their new GOLD client program. This program is designed to recognize the extensive commitment these clients have made to their EOS software.

EOS clients in the Gold Client Program are invited to participate in the EOS Advisory Council. This important group meets monthly and provides significant direct input to the EOS product development team. The result is a product that incorporates the latest technologies, trends, and features in library automation and knowledge management creating higher value and visibility for clients and their information assets.

Additional benefits EOS GOLD Clients receive are:

- Discounts on future products and services
- Free Virtual Classroom and Headquarters training
- Free ‘Exhibits-only’ passes for industry conferences
- Increased visibility within the entire EOS organization
- Escalated Help Desk services
- Participation in EOS blogs, cases studies, and newsletters
- And much more!

“We appreciate our clients selection of EOS International as their provider of library solutions and services and look forward to serving them for years to come”, says Jeff Smith, Vice President of Client Services at EOS International. “EOS remains, as always, dedicated to exceeding our clients expectations”.
