EOS International to Exhibit at the 55th Annual Military Libraries Workshop

(Carlsbad, CA – November 28, 2011) EOS International, a leader in cloud computing library automation, announced that they will be exhibiting at the Military Libraries Annual Workshop December 4-9, 2011 in Norfolk, Virginia.

The Special Libraries Association (SLA) and Military Libraries Division sponsor this workshop each year. The workshop provides military librarians, information specialists, and managers an opportunity for networking and professional development.

“The Annual Military Libraries Workshop will provide a great opportunity for EOS to meet with our potential and current clients in Virginia,” says Sal Provenza, Vice President of Global Sales and Marketing. “We value input from all our clients.”

This year’s events will include a Veterans History Project workshop and presentation, offsite at the MacArthur Museum and Archives; presentations on information overload, managing your library’s managers, analysis of intelligence, Coast Guard mission and information resources; a ghost walk, and more.
