EOS International to Host Bay Area Seminar and Client Reception at the Book Club of California

(Carlsbad, CA – October 10, 2011) EOS International, a leader in cloud computing library automation, announced that it will host two events in San Francisco, CA on November 17, 2011 at the Book Club of California. EOS will host a Luncheon Seminar for potential clients interested in learning more about EOS International, its products and services, followed by a Reception for EOS clients.

Vice President of Global Sales and Marketing, Salvatore Provenza states, “We look forward to attending our annual Seminar and Reception to meet with our prospects, partners, and clients in the Bay Area. Our seminar and client reception meetings are designed to provide prospects and clients with a venue to discuss their common challenges and discover the latest solutions provided by EOS.Web.”

The EOS International Luncheon Seminar will take place on November 17, 2011 from 12:00pm-1:00pm in the Gallery Room of the Book Club of California. This event is designed for individuals interested in learning more about EOS International and the products and services it has to offer. Marlene Vogelsang, a longstanding EOS client from Pacific Gas & Electric Co. will be the featured guest speaker at EOS’ Luncheon Seminar and Client Reception.

Following the Seminar, EOS will host a Client Reception specifically for clients to meet for an afternoon of refreshments and discussions about the latest enhancements to their EOS products, as well as how EOS is helping to improve their library’s capabilities. This will be held from 4:00pm-5:00pm in the Gallery Room of the Book Club of California.
